Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

RIN 3038-AC61

Good sirs,

My opinion is that this new regulation limiting leverages do 1:10 is a terrible crippling blow on forex traders and brokers. If this is approved, you will be making a big mistake and a step backwards. Not to mention the less people who will keep their money in your economy, whereas there will be other countries ready to offer larger leverages. Do not cripple your citizens, do not make this mistake!
